

PORTLAND DRAWING & PAINTING INTENSIVES
TWO SUMMER WORKSHOPS WITH JOSEPH MANN

July 10 - 14, 9 am – 5 pm

September 11 - 15, 9 am – 5 pm

In these workshops, we will investigate different approaches to organizing paintings of the figure. For the July session, we will investigate ways of thinking about the figure in an interior space; for the September session, we will be in the landscape. We will work from two models each day (both sessions).

Workshops include daily discussions about the ways these problems have been approached by great painters in the past, the value of working within a defined, traditional form, and the importance of combining observational painting with conceptual structures - - - what Cézanne called "creating a parallel to nature."

These workshops represent a continuum of my teaching from many years at the School of the Art Institute of Chicago and in Portland for over twenty years.
