Artist of the Month
Denise Champion

There is a language of color, in nature, that can only be interpreted by being there. This is why plein air painting so attracts me. Color does not express itself on film or from the corners of my mind, the way it does by being on location. The little small whispers of color in the shadows and the loud voices of the light, excite and inspire me.

Call for Art

Call for Artists

Application Deadline: January 20, 2018

The Artist Showcase calls on artists to submit 2- and 3- dimensional artwork for the fourth year of one of Northwind Arts Center's most successful programs.

The Artists Showcase encourages excellence in the arts by providing an ongoing professional exhibit space in Northwind Arts Center, 701 Water Street, Port Townsend, WA.

The Artist Showcase provides an alternative to a cooperative gallery setting. Artists are juried into the Showcase for a period of nine months. The Artist's work is presented in a curated show, hung by Northwind and rotated monthly. The Artist is not required to staff the exhibit space and the Artist takes away 70% of the sale price of their artwork. Northwind provides jurying of the Artists for acceptance into the Showcase, trained volunteer staffing and a prime downtown location with professional lighting, in exchange Northwind receives a reasonable monthly fee of $50/month from accepted Artists.
